

WOMEN & CREATIVITY

featured events 2016

TAKE ME WITH YOU!

WOMEN & CREATIVITY is an annual, month-long series that celebrates women's creativity across the disciplines. This year marks the 11th anniversary of the program.

Women & Creativity places particular emphasis on the innovation, exchange and leadership of our community's most visionary women.

Our featured events, detailed on the following pages, are curated collaborations; they are inventive, resourceful, inspiring programs that integrate myriad creative fields.

Our website also highlights dozens of additional statewide partners and their extraordinary exhibitions, performances, workshops and other presentations throughout March -- Women's History Month.

2. WHAT BECOMES: COMMUNITY COLLABORATIVE SCULPTURE

($ / RSVP)

During Harwood Art Center's Encompass event, the five ceramic artists of Desert Dweller Clay Collective will guide visitors to create a community clay sculpture then facilitate a workshop to complete the artwork.

Saturday, March 5, 5 – 8p // Harwood Art Center Making with Desert Dweller Clay Collective - Chris Casey, Jennifer DePaolo, Will Geusz, Jane Gordon, Teresa Larrabee

Sunday, March 6, 1 – 3p // Harwood Art Center Theatre Building with Desert Dweller Clay Collective to finish the community collaborative sculpture started at Encompass

3. THE ROVING TABLE: COMMUNITY GATHERING, FAMILY-STYLE

Tables naturally bring people together to share food, tell stories or work out differences, to name a few. Presented by Women in Design: NM and UNM School of Architecture & Planning, this large-scale table of reclaimed materials will move around the city, offering a surprising invitation for community exchange.

Saturday, March 5, 5 – 8p // Harwood Art Center

Spring & Summer // Albuquerque Civic Plaza

4. RALLY: HOW WE GATHER

($ / RSVP)

Celebrate the beauty of the RALLY and how we gather. Artists, scientists, community organizers, computer gurus and balloon pilots examine the idea of: Hey, let's get together. Join the conversation about gathering to create – and the joys and challenges of collaboration.

Sunday, March 6, 1 – 4p // ABQ Balloon Museum LAUNCH: Open House. An afternoon of installations, workshops, and presentations by more than a dozen collaborative individuals, organizations, and local businesses

Thursday, March 31, 5 – 8p // ABQ Balloon Museum LANDING: Project Celebration. A Landing Party with live music, food, beer, art making, and balloon-glow in celebration of gathering and creativity

5. FIERCE FEMALES: WOMEN AT WORK ($ / RSVP)

A two-part series, presented by 516 ARTS and Central Features Contemporary Art, focuses on how historic and contemporary New Mexico women ingeniously stake their claim and help shape the local workforce.

Part One – Thursday, March 10, 6p // 516 ARTS

516 ARTS and Historic District Improvement Company host filmmaker Katrina Parks and writer Carolyn Meyer, who will discuss one of the first all female American workforces

Part Two – Friday, March 11, 11:30a – 1:30p // Central Features Contemporary Art

Central Features and Creative Startups host “Talk Back,” an extended (net)working lunch and focused conversation for women in various stages of creative entrepreneurial endeavors

6. THE LIKENESS OF US

“When you look at me do you see yourself?” This cross-generational art exhibit unites established women artists with young women from the Youth Services Center through a visual dialogue fostering creativity and self-reflection.

Friday, March 11, 5:30 – 7p // African American Performing Art Center Gallery

Opening reception hosted by Bernalillo County Cultural Services with Bernalillo County Youth Services

March 9 – March 31 // Exhibition Dates

Gallery Hours Tue. – Fri. 10a – 5p and Sat. 10a – 4p

7. EKCO POETS: DANCE AND DANCERS (RSVP)

EKCO poets Tanesia Hale-Jones, Valerie Martínez, Michelle Otero and Shelle Sanchez have collaborated with dancers Romy Keegan, Pilar Leto and Lisa Nevada to produce a poetry performance with dance and about dance.

Friday, March 11, 8p // Tricklock Theater Company

Saturday, March 12, 3pm // Tricklock Theater Company

8. ART & STROLL: A POP-UP BRUNCH CELEBRATING CREATIVITY & CUISINE ($ / RSVP)

An art/dance/writing-infused walk along acequias followed by brunch, prepared by Chef Marie Yniguez. Presented by edible Santa Fe, the morning features writer Michelle Otero; artists Chrissie Orr and Noel Chilton; place settings by potters H.P. Bloomer, Jennifer DePaolo and Teresa Larrabee; and dance choreographed by Romy Keegan of Maple Street Dance Space. Join for the walk, brunch, or both.

Saturday, March 19, 10a – 11:30a: Walk // Valle del Bosque Park

Saturday, March 19, 11:30a – 1p: Brunch // Valle Encantado Farm

9. EQUINOX YOGA: 108 SUN SALUTATIONS ($ / RSVP)

Synchronizing movement with breath quiets the mind, making space for A-ha moments. From this inspired mindful state, you can hear your own h-art song. Afterwards, create a personal expression (materials provided) inspired by your yoga practice.

Friday, March 20, 12:30p – 3p // Bhava Yoga Studio with Marisol Brito, Sarah Gorham, Maya Ramsey, and Lululemon

10. BURQUE NOIR ($ / RSVP)

Burque Noir brings together Dance, Music, Poetry, Comedy, and Live Visual Art in a relaxed Albuquerque venue where the theme for the night is simply, Black. It's exclusively inclusive! Join this multimedia networking event and celebrate African American Women as artists and activists in New Mexico! #BurqueNoir

Saturday, March 26, 7p – 11p // Las Puertas Event Center

11. FEAST FOR THE SENSES: A POP-UP DINNER ($ / RSVP)

Join us at the table as we take you on an exploration of creativity during this pop-up dinner. In the unique gallery setting, music, art, poetry, theater and/or dance are integrated with the culinary arts. Presented by edible Santa Fe and Farm & Table, the menu will push the limits of the sensory experience.

Tuesday, March 29, 7 – 9p // SCA Contemporary at Sanitary Tortilla Factory
